"AI will help us refine what we want to do and should be doing as humans. With that extra time I'd love to be even more specialised in installation art - it's from the soul, it's something deeper. So, as I am getting older, I guess I have more reflections on my life, and I think installation art will be a great way to reflect that."

Architect Colin Seah knows the passions he'll chase when Audi Intelligence brings the 25th hour - what about you? #HumansOfAudi #AtoBeyond
